

- What: Online courses are offered twice per year in all Alternate Education and Training Centres.
- Who: 16 years of age and older, encompassing many age groups.
- Why: Course can be completed from home, if you have high speed internet, or in your local AETC, using one of our computers.
- Where: All AETC locations, or from the convenience of your own home. Students must attend their local AETC for orientation on the first day of class, as well as write their exam on the last day.
- When: Online courses run Monday to Friday, mornings, six weeks in length, twice per school year.
- If you log on during the morning, you will be involved in a 'live' lesson. Lessons are recorded for those who wish to log in at another time.
- Fee: Student activity fee, per school year, is $25, which includes all programs within our Alternate Education and Training Centres.
- How: Visit anewstart.ca to see course offerings.
